PIRACY.

Details of Crime and the Modus Operandi of the Criminals.

From the Evansville (ghio) Courier. The arrest of a rather peculiar party f outlaws was effected near Brandenburg, Ky., on Sunday last. For some days past, it seems, a large, gaunt look-ing flatboat has been making its way down the Ohio, stopping at various landings. The crew consisted of two men and three women. One of the men claimed to be a great Indian doctor, with a wonderful medicine, which cured all the like the tree is to be a great in the content of the co all the ills that flesh is heir to in the shortest possible space of time. He was arrayed in all the fancy bedizenry of the dusky warrior. Ribbons were fantastically arranged around his person, and moccasin-like shoes covered his feet, when not entirely bare, according to the traditional usage of the redskins. On Thursday night a week, the boat was lying at Tobacco Landing, a point about five miles above Brandenburg, Ky. During the day the men had made forays among the neighboring farmers, offering their medical services and pretending to be on the lookout for eatables.
